

35 floors and a spherical, planet-like façade, the hotel offers an experience that's out of this world.

AT YOUR SERVICE

If you've got a little spare cash, there's no reason why you can't live a life as pampered as multi-millionaires Donald Trump and Paris Hilton. Luxury Leisure is an Australian service offering concierges for hire. For $70 per hour (plus GST), your personal concierge will drive you around, arrange your social diary, make restaurant reservations and buy birthday presents for your other half, while arranging your personal trainer, nanny and household bills. With nothing left to do, your days will be blissfully free for long lunches, golf lessons, yoga classes and beauty treatments. Visit www.luxuryleisure.com.au.
